

Re: Scott Banister-Jones / Scott BJ Properties

12th December 2013

To whom it may concern,

Scott sold our property for us in November 2013.

From the moment we sat down with Scott to discuss the sale of our property with him, we both felt very much at ease and agreed that he would be the best person to sell our home. In particular, he was very honest and straightforward. We also admired that he only dealt with selling property and only took on a small number of properties to ensure he got his clients the best result.

Scott was professional throughout the sale of our home and worked very hard – selling our home in only a few weeks for a price we were very happy with.

We have no hesitation in recommending Scott Banister Jones to anyone wanting to sell their property and will certainly be recommending him to all our family and friends.
