

JOHN MASON REAL ESTATE

At John Mason Real Estate we are a small, proudly independent family run real estate agency located at 182 Tranquil Drive, CARRAMAR WA 6031.

Our aim is to ensure that clients dealing with us enjoy a pleasant and memorable experience; we must be doing something right as we have been in operation in Carramar since early 2006; during which time we have earned the trust of many loyal clients who come back to us time and time again with repeat business and referrals to their family or friends.

www.johnmasonrealestate.com.au Our newly launched website is a core element of our business, one that helps market our listings, enhances our Agency branding, and attracts new vendors.

We have an experienced and dedicated Sales Team on board as well as a Property Management Section; all of our staff can offer a well researched informed opinion and are constantly keeping abreast of current market changes and trends. All live locally and are well versed in the intricacies of the market.

We are constantly seeking new innovative ways to improve our services to meet consumer demand, remaining small and totally independent allows us to offer a very personal level of attention to our clients irrespective as to the size or value of their property.

Your property is one of your most valuable assets. Entrust the sale or rental of same to us and we will endeavour to find the right buyer or the right tenant for you. Principal/Licensee John Mason has been selling real estate in the northern suburbs since early 1998; his handpicked team are keen to do business with you.
