

The Park Avenue residential development is to be built on remediated land which has been classified as suitable for residential housing.