

 In the blue corner ...

TM Residential founder Tonia McNeilly is used to competing in the dog-eat-dog world of multi-million-dollar real estate, but she's never had to punch a competitor. That will all change on May 3, when she steps into the boxing ring at Crown Perth for a three-round fight with Million Dollar Makeovers founder Sasha deBretton. The fight is part of the Royal Queensbury Corporate Challenge, an event organised by Toybox International to raise money for sick and disadvantaged children. "Initially my family thought I was mad but now they have boxing fever and are right into it," Tonia says. She has been training for six months with boxing coach Glen Austin and fitness coach Brad Davies. "Without those two guys I would be stuffed," she says.

Tonia McNeilly will step into the ring for charity on Friday.